Homework Hall – Homework Hall begins on Tuesday. Students that do not turn in their homework will be staying after school to complete it. Parents will receive a phone call if their child is being held for Homework Hall

Class Website – If you miss a newsletter, I post them on the class website at www.denilya.net. There are also links to websites where students can practice their spelling, reading, and math.

Math – We are currently studying graphing. Students should be able to create and read a line plot and a bar graph. We will be starting with probability next week as well. Students should know the following terms: impossible, unlikely, maybe, likely, certain. Although we are not currently focusing on multiplication, students should still be practicing their multiplication facts as well.
